

Office of the Secretary of Defense

§ 386.4

5025.1,⁵ “Department of Defense Directives System,” October 16, 1980.

(r) Enter into support and services agreements with the Military Departments, other DoD components, or other Government agencies as required for the effective performance of responsibilities and functions assigned to DIA.

(s) Exercise the authority delegated to the Secretary of Defense by the Administrator of the General Services Administration with respect to the disposal of surplus personal property.

The Director, DIA, may redelegate these authorities, as appropriate, and in writing, except as otherwise specifically indicated above or as otherwise provided by law or regulation.

(t) Enter into and administer contracts, directly or through another DoD Component or other Federal Agency, as appropriate, for supplies, equipment, and services required to accomplish the mission of the Defense Intelligence Agency. Contracting will be accomplished in accordance with applicable laws, DoD regulations and the Defense Acquisition Regulation. To the extent that any law or executive order specifically limits the exercise of such authority to persons at the Secretarial level of the Military Department, such authority will be exercised by the appropriate Under Secretary of Defense.

AUTHORITY: 10 U.S.C. 301 and E.O. 12333, 3 CFR, 1981 Comp., p. 200.

SOURCE: 57 FR 23157, June 2, 1992, unless otherwise noted. Redesignated at 58 FR 39360, July 22, 1993.

§ 386.1 Purpose and applicability.

(a) This part establishes a Central Imagery Office (CIO) within the Department of Defense to ensure that United States Government intelligence, mapping, charting and geodesy, and other needs for imagery are met effectively and efficiently in a manner conducive to national security, consistent with the authorities and duties of the Secretary of Defense and the Director of Center Intelligence under title 10, U.S.C., E.O. 12333, and DoD Directive 5240.1.¹

(b) This part applies to the Office of the Secretary of Defense; the Military Departments; the Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff and the Joint Staff; the Unified and Specified Combatant Commands; the Defense Agencies; and DoD Field Activities.

§ 386.2 Mission.

The Central Imagery Office shall provide support to the Department of Defense, the Central Intelligence Agency, and other Federal Government departments and agencies on matters concerning imagery relating to the national security.

§ 386.3 Organization and management.

The Central Imagery Office is hereby established as a defense agency of the Department of Defense under 10 U.S.C. and is hereby designated as a combat support agency. The Assistant Secretary of Defense for Command, Control, Communications, and Intelligence shall exercise overall supervision over the Central Imagery Office. The Central Imagery Office shall consist of a Director of the Central Imagery Office and such subordinate organizational elements, including the central imagery tasking authority required by § 386.5(a)(4), as the Director establishes within the resources made available.

§ 386.4 Responsibilities and functions.

The Director of the Central Imagery Office shall:

(a) Organize, direct, and manage the Central Imagery Office and all assigned resources.
